OPPORTUNITY WEEK ENDS TONIGHT

Have You Turned in Enough Six Months Subscriptions to Win the Opportunity Prize? If Not, Get Busy—You Have but Five Hours Left

At Nine O'clock Tonight the Doors of The Dispatch Will Close and Opportunity Week Will End

HAVE YOU ENOUGH TO WIN?

Have you enough new six months subscriptions to win? Don't be over-confident, for while you tarry your opponent is at work. Every minute counts and you want to make the most of them. Every subscription counts and you need them, not only to win the Opportunity week prize, but to pile up your votes for the Mammoth, Capital, Grand and District Prizes.

HOW TO GET VOTES

Have you ever heard a lawyer present a case at court with the jury breathlessly intent on every word he utters. He holds them spellbound while he presses home the points of his case. That's the way you want to get votes. Get the attention of your prospective subscriber and explain to him in detail all about the contest, telling him why you are trying to win and why it would be a benefit to him to take the Brainerd Dispatch and a benefit to you to get the votes.

SUCCESS.

It has been said that the successful are the ones who are doing what they make up their mind to do and making good at it.

Remember, that if a thing is worth doing at all, it's worth doing well. That's what makes success in everything. That's what will make you successful in this battle of votes—stick-to-itiveness and perseverance.

In the spring of 1899, Captain Harry Newton of the 16th Infantry stationed at Manila was called to General Lawton's headquarters and received orders to head a band of five other men and make a circuitous journey inland some nine hundred miles, and if possible capture General Aguinaldo, head of the Philippine revolutionist government. Six months elapsed after the departure of Captain Newton without a word of his fate or the success of his venture. Then came the news that astonished the world. Aguinaldo had been captured in the heart of his own domain and brought captive to Manila. In all the telegraphic accounts of the capture was detailed information as to the bravery of the task performed, but little was said of the hardships undergone by the men who performed it. Nothing was said of the alligator infested streams that were swam and forded or the torturing heat of the sun on wet and dirty uniforms, or the cuts and scratches of the tropical underbrush, or the almost maddening pestilence of insects. These were things that were overlooked by the world and forgotten by the men themselves as a fiendish nightmare, but they were the hardships that had to be overcome to bring the glory of the success that followed.

The road to fame is not a rose strewn path. It is filled with thorny briars. There are constantly little impediments that confront one. They have to be overcome, brushed aside or trampled under foot.

In gathering the votes you will find, as Captain Newton found, that where there's a will there's a way. You can find the way if you seek it. Are you trying to? That's the question.

The Brainerd Dispatch is giving away $2500 in prizes to the ladies of the Northland, prizes rich in material and intrinsic value. Are you trying to win a proportion of them? If not, why aren't you? You may never have another opportunity like this.

OPPORTUNITY WEEK ENDS

Tonight at nine o'clock Opportunity Week comes to an end and some lady of the Northland will become the possessor of the handsome lady's suit case that is now on display in Bye & Peterson's window.

Promptly at nine o'clock tonight the doors of the Dispatch office will be locked and Opportunity Week will end. All who are in the office at that time will be waited on in their turn and their subscriptions counted toward the awarding of the Opportunity Week Prize.

Let "Pike's Peak or Bust" be your motto. Go all the way. Be a live wire. That's what will get you the Opportunity Prize. Hustle in that subscription that has been promised you—it may be the one that is lacking to make you win.

You are on the home stretch coming down under the wire of Opportunity Week. Every minute wasted is a minute lost, and every minute lost means votes lost. It may mean the loss of the Opportunity Prize to you, so keep at it and gather in the votes, for even the eleventh hour votes count as much as any others. Now is the time. Tomorrow won't do. You can't put off till tomorrow what can be done today if you want to win the Opportunity Week Prize.

New York, May 25.—Appropriations of more than $700,000 have been made by the General Education board for the endowment and work of various colleges and for agricultural work in the South. The appropriations to colleges include: Drake university, Des Moines, $100,000; Cornell college, Mount Vernon, Ia., $50,000, in addition to a like amount subscribed at the last meeting of the board.

Episcopalians Meet in St. Paul. St. Paul, May 25.—A large amount of business awaits the session of the fifty-second annual council of the diocese of Minnesota of the Episcopal church, which was called to order by Right Rev. Samuel C. Edsall, D. D., bishop of the diocese, at the Church of St. John the Evangelist. Short services preparatory to communion were held and following them Bishop Edsall gave his charge to the assembly.

CHIEF FRED KOHLER.

Serious Charges Made Against Police Official.

CHARGES AGAINST KOHLER

Head of Cleveland's Police Department Under Fire.

Cleveland, May 25.—Charges have been filed with Mayor Baehr against Chief of Police Kohler, known throughout the country as the "golden rule" chief, alleging gross immorality, habitual drunkenness and disobedience of the orders of his superior. The charges were filed by A. C. K. Schaeneman, an attorney, and David J. Brown, a contractor. Neither of the complainants would discuss the charges in any way or say whether they were acting as individual citizens.

The matter will be taken up by the mayor, who announced that in view of the seriousness of the accusations he would immediately suspend Chief Kohler if he found sufficient evidence to justify him. Otherwise the charges would be handed over to the civil service board for action.

PARTICIPATE IN CLOSING SESSION

Children Take Part in Convention Exercises.

Washington, May 25.—Children took the principal part in the closing session of the sixth convention of the world's Sunday School association. The central thought of the meeting was, as one speaker expressed it, that "the only way to bring about the evangelization of the world in this or in any other generation was through the teaching of Christ to the children in the Sunday school."

Dressed in costumes of most of the nations of the world and carrying the flags of those countries, preceded by the "conquest flag," which bears a cross and the words "By this sign, conquer," a long line of children filled the front of the big platform and later marched through the aisles of the immense hall, singing.

International in almost every aspect was the closing meeting. There were speakers from India, Japan, Korea and other foreign countries; the decorations were flags of the nations and an immense map of the world, with an electric cross over it, covered the wall at the back of the platform. England and America clasped hands in the speaker's rostrum when the retiring president of the association, Rev. Dr. Meyer of London, stood by the side of the new president, Dr. George W. Bailey of Philadelphia.

The next convention will meet in Geneva, Switzerland, in 1913. The month and date will be determined later by the executive committee.

The committee on resolutions presented a report, which was unanimously adopted by the convention, declaring for a campaign of evangelization in the Roman Catholic countries; for civic purity; for universal peace, and expressing the conviction that Sunday school influences are responsible for the wave of prohibition which has swept some sections of the country.

FATALLY HURT ON DESERT

Minnesota Man Dies in Nevada of Mysterious Injury.

Salt Lake City, May 25.—When an eastbound Southern Pacific train was nearing Sparks, Nev., the engineer discovered a man some distance from the right of way. The train was stopped and the man taken to Sparks, where he was placed in the railroad company's hospital.

He was terribly injured internally and was unable to give an account of how the hurt had been caused. There were no external marks of violence and there was no indication that he had been struck by a train.

Cards in the pockets indicated the man's name was W. F. Bitts, and that his home was in Virginia, Minn. He died soon after he was placed in the hospital.

Episcopalians Meet in St. Paul.

St. Paul, May 25.—A large amount of business awaits the session of the fifty-second annual council of the diocese of Minnesota of the Episcopal church, which was called to order by Right Rev. Samuel C. Edsall, D. D., bishop of the diocese, at the Church of St. John the Evangelist. Short services preparatory to communion were held and following them Bishop Edsall gave his charge to the assembly.

VOTES MONEY FOR PRESIDENT

But House Turns Down Tariff Board Proposition.

TAWNEY MAKES FUTILE FIGHT

Vainly Endeavors to Have the Tariff Board Provision Retained in the Sundry Civil Bill—Rewrites It Several Times, but Each Time It Is Declared Out of Order—Quarter of a Million Dollars for Investigation.

Washington, May 25.—Although the house voted to appropriate $250,000 to be used by the president in investigating the cost of production of manufactured articles at home and abroad, Representative Tawney, chairman of the appropriations committee, failed in his fight to retain in the sundry civil bill the provision creating a tariff board with enlarged and comprehensive powers. Consequently, while the president may use the sum in question in connection with the present board, there was no action which might be held to give any tariff board or commission legislative sanction.

Mr. Tawney made a likely fight to retain the tariff board provision, of which he is the author, in the measure and rewrote the provision several times. Each time it was held out of order, however, until he eliminated from the language of the provision any reference to the proposed new board. Then Representative Mann of Illinois, who was in the chair, held that the provision was in order. Incidentally, Representative Seno E. Payne of New York, Republican floor leader and chairman of the ways and means committee, who was progressive and stood with the Democrats in opposition to the tariff board feature, turned around and voted with Mr. Tawney and his party to place the quarter of a million at the disposal of the president.

The provision as it was finally retained in the bill reads as follows:

"To enable the president to secure information to assist him in the discharge of the duties imposed on him by the tariff law, approved Aug. 5, 1909, and the officers of the government in administering the customs laws, including such investigation of the cost of commodities, covering the cost of material, fabrication and every other element of such cost of production as are authorized by said tariff act, including the employment of such persons as may be required for these purposes, $250,000."

BITTER FACTIONAL FIGHT

Alaskans at Odds Over Activities of the Guggenheims.

Washington, May 25.—An investigation, which is expected to disclose to a greater extent than ever before the bitter factional feeling in the Republican party in Alaska, was begun before the sub-committee of the senate committee on judiciary. It is being held in connection with protests made against the confirmation of John Rustgaard and Herbert L. Faulkner, appointed by President Taft as United States attorney and United States marshal, respectively, to succeed John J. Boyce and Daniel A. Sutherland, who were removed at the request, it is understood, of Governor Walter E. Clark.

Senator Nelson is chairman of the sub-committee and associated with him are Senators Borah and Overman. The proceedings were highly sensational. The principal speaker was Delegate James Wickersham, who made charges against Governor Clark, ex-Governor Hoggatt and Louis Shackelford, the member of the Republican national committee from Alaska. The Alaskan delegate sought to connect these men with the Guggenheim interests.

As to the exact testimony given little could be learned. Senator Nelson, after an adjournment had been ordered until Thursday, cautioned the witnesses against revealing the executive proceedings. It is understood, however, that Senators Borah and Overman will recommend open hearings.

The controversy is said to be chiefly between factions opposing the activities of the Guggenheims in Alaska and that which favors the rapid development of the territory.

Slayer Given Long Sentence.

Clinton, Ia., May 25.—John Read of Tacoma, Wash., who pleaded guilty to the murder of A. W. Lundgren, a Clinton bridge tender, was sentenced to thirty-five years in the Fort Madison penitentiary. Read killed Lundgren while intoxicated to escape payment of 5 cents toll.

Boy Injured by Street Car.

St. Paul, May 25.—Raymond Cook, four-year-old son of Claude Cook of South Park, was run down by a Concord street car inbound from South St. Paul and received injuries which may prove fatal.

Millman Killed by Train.

Deadwood, S. D., May 25.—In an effort to swing upon a moving passenger train on the Northwestern road at Lead, James Harris, a Homestead millman, met death. His mangled body was found by passersby some time after the train had left. He had been dragged and run over. He leaves a wife and children.

ANDREW CARNEGIE.

Will Meet Roosevelt at Peace Society Meeting.

ROOSEVELT AND CARNEGIE

Will Meet at Annual Meeting of Peace Society.

London, May 25.—Andrew Carnegie and former President Roosevelt will meet at the annual meeting of the Peace society at the Guildhall. This will be the formal meeting of these two famous advocates of world's peace. Mr. Carnegie will make a speech, but it is not certain yet whether Mr. Roosevelt can be induced to say a few words to advance the cause. It is believed he could if he would, make some extremely interesting statements as to the feeling towards arbitration and the limitation of armaments at the various European capitals, but it is not likely he will.

In a conference Mr. Carnegie has arranged between Mr. Roosevelt and some of the leaders of the peace movement the former president will probably give the results of his talks with the Kaiser, President Fallieres, King Victor and the Emperor Francis Joseph, but it is hardly likely the public will be taken into his confidence at this time.

The impression is strong here that Mr. Roosevelt will head the American delegation to the next Hague conference. It is believed if he should be tendered and accept this appointment, he would be the dominant force in the conference, and would be able to do more than any other single man to advance the cause of the peace of the world.

Mr. Roosevelt has accepted the offer of the Cambridge union to be made an honorary member of that society.

BELIEVED THAT ALL OF THEM ARE DEAD

Hope for Safety of Missing Men Abandoned.

Port Hudson, Mich., May 25.—Families and friends of the missing eight members of the crew of the ill-fated steamer Frank H. Goodyear, which sank off Pointe aux Barques, Lake Huron, after being rammed amidships by the steamer James B. Woods, have practically given up all hope of any of the missing party having been rescued. The steamer Sir William Siemens, which was said to have picked up some of the missing crew, passed Detroit and made no report of having any of the survivors aboard.

The scene of the collision was about twenty-five miles north of Pointe aux Barques and the time between 5 and 6 o'clock in the morning. A thick fog hung over the water. The Goodyear was coming down from Lake Superior laden with ore. The Woods, owned by the Gilchrist Transportation company of Cleveland, was going up light. There was little sea at the time and the fog is held largely responsible for the accident.

TAWNEY AND MACON CLASH

WOULD PREVENT HIGHER RATES

Shippers Plan Action Against Western Railroads.

AT MEETING HELD IN OMAHA

Decision Is Reached to Fight Proposed Increase in Freight Rates That Is Scheduled to Occur on June 1—Anti-Trust Law May Be Invoked and Restraining Order Sought in Court.

Omaha, May 25.—Prompt and vigorous action to prevent the putting into effect of the increased freight rates proposed by Western railroads as scheduled to the interstate commerce commission was decided upon by a meeting of the representatives of the shipping interests in the trade of the Missouri river territory here. Prominent business men of the cities of the territory named were present, as well as some from Eastern trade centers.

W. P. Trickett of the Minneapolis Traffic association declared the proposed raise in freight rates is not necessitated by the increased expenses of the railroads, but by the desire of their owners for excessive profits. He asserted the traffic officials of the different roads had no knowledge of the proposed changes until notified from New York they had been made.

Charles Elgutter, attorney for the Omaha Traffic bureau, outlined the two methods which he said were open to the shippers in their efforts to prevent the proposed rate increase, both of which, he declared, should be adopted.

Should Invoke Federal Aid.

The attorney general of the United States should be asked to proceed against the roads which joined in the new schedule under the anti-trust law, he said. "At the same time, application for relief should be made to the interstate commerce commission, and pending its investigation of the reasonableness of the rates an injunction should be secured from the district court to prevent the rates being put into effect June 1, as scheduled."

E. J. McVann, head of the Omaha Traffic bureau, suggested that many of the roads who were defendants in the action started in 1907 by the creamery men are parties to the present agreement to raise rates, and possibly might be proceeded against as violators of the permanent injunction obtained at that time.

A committee of one from each organization of shippers in the cities represented was instructed to carry out the plan outlined by Mr. Elgutter. This committee is authorized to increase its own membership. It has full power to take such action as is necessary.

CHILD IS BURNED TO DEATH

Clothing Catches Fire While She Is at Play.

Langdon, N. D., May 25.—Edith, the nine-year-old daughter of Charles Goertz, living near Dresden, suffered a terrible death from burning. The little girl was playing in the ashes left from a straw pile that had been burned a few days before. As she played she uncovered live coals that had been smoldering, and these set fire to her clothing. She lay down in the sand and tried to put the fire out by rolling over and over, but being unsuccessful, ran toward the home. The wind fanned the flames, and by the time she reached the house her clothing was gone and the flesh was falling off her body. She lived but a few hours.

FATALLY HURTS HER CHILD

Mother Tries to Save Little One From Being Scalded.

Marion, S. D., May 25.—To inadvertently inflict injuries which contributed to the death of her three-year-old daughter, while striving to save the little girl from being scalded in a kettle of hot water, was the distressing experience of Mrs. Peter Wiens of Marion. The child fell into the kettle of water, and the mother in her fright seized the girl by the arm and jerked her out of danger. Death soon resulted from an injury to the spine. The mother is almost distracted.

ONE KILLED AND ONE HURT

Lumber Falls on Railroad Engineer and Switchman.

Two Marbors, Minn., May 25.—William Cogley, an engineer, was instantly killed and W. F. Engel, a switchman, sustained a broken leg and minor injuries here. Both are old employees of the Duluth and Iron Range railway, and were watching the rerailling of a carload of lumber when the car stakes broke, throwing the lumber upon them.

ARKANSAN IS OBSTREPEROUS

Threat of Arrest "Under the Mace" Necessary to Quiet Him—Proposed Amendment to the Sundry Civil Bill the Cause of the Altercation—Truth of Statement Doubtful by Macon.

Washington, May 25.—Representative Tawney of Minnesota and Representative Macon of Arkansas got into such a wordy row on the floor of the house and Mr. Macon became so obstreperous that Representative Mann of Illinois, who was in the chair, had to threaten him with the sergeant-at-arms and the mace.

To be arrested "under the mace" is about the most serious thing that can happen to a member of the house, as it automatically denies him from taking any further part in the house proceedings until there has been a lot of voting and parliamentary red tape to restore him to good standing. Mr. Mann either accidentally or purposely overlooked the fact that, the house being in committee of the whole, the mace was not on the job, but was laid away in cotton batting somewhere or other. But the threat accomplished its purpose just the same.

Mr. Tawney had offered an amendment to the sundry civil bill proposing to appropriate $100,000 to create an economy board to modernize the business methods of the several departments of the government. Mr. Macon improved the opportunity to mention that he considered this proposition nothing more or less than a scheme to provide jobs for the faithful and to furnish campaign funds for those that needed the help.

Representative Stafford of Wisconsin interrupted Mr. Macon with the statement that an expenditure by the government of $25,000 to improve business methods in the treasury department had already resulted in a saving of more than $25,000 a year.

"I don't believe any part of that statement," shouted Mr. Macon.

Responsible for Its Correctness.

"The chairman of the appropriations committee is responsible for its correctness," retorted Mr. Stafford.

"I don't care who is responsible," shouted Mr. Macon, "I don't believe it."

Then began a bitter attack on the Republicans for keeping congress in session so long.

"You are afraid to go back home," he cried tauntingly. "That's what's the matter. You want to stay here in the hope that things will blow over."

Mr. Tawney jumped to his feet. "In that case," he said, "we are not in as bad a condition as was the gentleman from Arkansas two or three weeks ago. He was afraid he would never come back, and for that reason he went home."

The Republicans chuckled at this, recognizing the reference to Mr. Macon's recent extended trip back home, where he had a hard fight to get re-nominated.

"But he did come back, all right," interjected Minority Leader Clark, as the laughter died away.

Meanwhile Mr. Macon had been fighting for breath and recognition.

"Who was afraid," he cried, shaking his finger at Tawney, "when the president of the United States traveled to Winona, Minn., at the expense of the American people, to save the scalp of the gentleman from Minnesota? The president of the United States abused the appropriation of $25,000 he received for his traveling expenses by going all the way to Winona to speak in Mr. Tawney's district. Who was afraid then?"

Mr. Tawney grinned and remarked that, in view of Mr. Macon's great display of indignation, he would make no reply.

THOMAS TO BE A WITNESS

Head of Sugar Trust Will Testify in Heike Case.

New York, May 25.—Washington B. Thomas, president of the American Sugar Refining company, has been subpoenaed by the government and probably will appear as a witness at the trial of Charles R. Heike, secretary and treasurer of the company.

Heike, with five subordinates, is being tried in the criminal branch of the United States circuit court charged with conspiracy to defraud the government by underweighing sugar.

Thomas appeared in court with Dr. Samuel D. Hooker of Philadelphia, a director of the company, but left hurriedly after he was informed that his presence was not needed. Just when he will testify was not announced.

Child Killed by a Horse.

Green Bay, Wis., May 25.—The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. John Walenfang was instantly killed here by having its head crushed by a runaway horse. The mother had gone into a store to make some purchases, leaving the babe in its carriage on the sidewalk. The carriage started slipping to the street and the mother shrieked. This frightened horses nearby and the runaway resulted. The mother is in a serious condition.

Three wagon loads of Gypsies were in the city yesterday camping in various parts of town and telling fortunes. The most prosperous one of the caravan carried his family in all possible style, conveying them in an old delivery wagon labelled, Elmer, forist, 5523 South Halsted street, Chicago. It made the writer wonder if some of these Gypsies didn't come from Chicago's west side.

SAYS FARMER IS SATISFIED

Congressman Martin Talks About High Cost of Living.

Washington, May 25.—That the American hog is a much more valuable "critter" to have on an American farm nowadays than is generally supposed was amply demonstrated in the house by Representative Martin of South Dakota. Mr. Martin also demonstrated why the American farmer snickers these days when he hears cries of rage over the high cost of living.

"The farmer has no complaint to make in these piping times," said Representative Martin. "The high cost of living enables him to live high. There was a time when the farmer got the worst of it. Now he is getting his share and he is prosperous and contented."

Representative Martin then read to the house a statement prepared in the department of commerce and labor showing the prosperity of the farmer as compared with the rest of the community.

"The farmer is not kicking," said Mr. Martin. "He is not selfish, but at the same time he would view with alarm the passing of the era of high prices."

DISTRICT COURT CONVENED TUESDAY

Judge B. F. Wright Presides—Grand Jury is Charged—H. H. Baker is Foreman

PRELIMINARY CALL OF CASES

Orders Entered in Nine Cases—Cashman vs. Wiederwisch on Trial This Morning

District court convened on Tuesday morning, May 24th, at the court house, Hon. B. F. Wright, judge of the 15th judicial district, presiding. The roll of the grand jury was called and all were present except Wesley Caro and John Arnold, who were excused, by order of court.

H. H. Baker was appointed foreman of the grand jury. The jury was charged by the court and then retired to its deliberations, selecting William E. Erickson as its clerk. The jury is in charge of Officer W. W. Winters, who was duly sworn in as such.

The court ordered the appointment of two deputy sheriffs and one deputy clerk for the term. The two deputy sheriffs selected are W. W. Winters and Claus Theorine, while J. A. Wilson will serve as deputy clerk.

The preliminary call of the calendar was then taken up:

The case of H. H. Hitch vs. H. O. Krieglbottom, was continued by consent.

Thomas H. Brown vs. Franklin Benner, et al, was stricken from the calendar by order of the court for want of prosecution.

The suit of George A. McKinley vs. Itasca Cedar & Tie Co., was continued by consent of the parties.

In the case of Minneapolis Trust Co. vs. Peter Wolford et al, judgment was ordered as per stipulation. The suit of Geo. G. Davis vs. J. J. Howe Lumber Co. et al, was continued as per stipulation on file.

In the case of Fred E. Lowe vs. J. P. Chance the defendant gave notice of motion to strike from calendar upon the ground that the note of issue fails to state that the case was for court or jury and upon the hearing in open court, the court made an oral order denying the motion. Exceptions were taken by the defendant.

At half past one in the afternoon the case of the state of Minnesota vs. Frank Ramsey and Frank Wesley was called. The court ordered that both defendants be discharged from further custody of the court and that the bond in the case of Frank Ramsey be dismissed that the deposit of $75 in the case of Frank Wesley be returned to him.

In the case of the state vs. James Grasser and James Winters, an order was entered allowing the defendants to enter into their own recognizance in the sum of $200 each for their appearance before the grand jury now in session.

In the case of the state vs. Nick

Sore the following order was entered: "On motion of county attorney it appearing that Nick Sore, who was held to the grand jury from the justice court, town of Allen, has been committed to the hospital for insane at Fergus Falls, Minn., by the probate court of Crow Wing county. Ordered that said Nick Sore be and he is discharged from custody."

Three residents were granted their final papers by Judge Wright as follows: Julius Steinke, Axel Fasth and Peter Christensen Madsen.

There are two more applicants to be heard at this term of court.

The petition of Carl Gustaf Lindholm was denied twice before continuances were granted him dated May 25th, 1909 and Dec. 14th, 1909. On May 24th the following decision was rendered by Judge Wright: "Upon consideration of the petition and on motion of R. S. Coleman, chief naturalization examiner for the United States in Minnesota the petition was dismissed because of the continued non-appearance of petitioner."

The case of G. E. Cashman vs. F. Wiederwisch was called at nine o'clock this morning. This is a suit on a note. A. T. Larson appears for the plaintiff and T. C. Blewitt represents the defense.

In a short interview accorded the Dispatch representative Judge Wright stated as follows:

"I shall be here until Saturday. There will be no court in session on Monday as that is Decoration day. Judge Stanton, who is now at Aitkin, may come down on Tuesday and hold court here. If necessary, Judge McLennahan may go to Aitkin and finish the work there. I believe this will be a short term of court at Brainerd."

WILL ELECT DELEGATES

Special Meeting of Northern Minnesota Development Association Will Be Held

A special meeting of the Northern Minnesota Development Association members will be held at the Commercial club rooms on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock to elect delegates to the Crookston meeting of the Association and it is especially desired that a large attendance be present.

A concerted effort is to be made to secure the next meeting of the association for Brainerd so it is desired that a strong delegation of citizens in addition to the regular delegates, attend the Crookston meeting. A special sleeping car has been arranged for, and those who go will have the time of their life. Get out to the meeting tomorrow and help make it an enthusiastic success.

NO REASON FOR IT

When Brainerd Citizens Show the Certain Way Out

There can be no just reason why any reader of this will continue to suffer the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the dangers of diabetes of any kidney ills when relief is so near at hand and the most positive proof given that they can be cured. Read what a Brainerd citizen says:

Mrs. Caroline Sundberg, 1504 E. Pine St., S. E., Brainerd, Minn., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have earned my highest endorsement. I suffered for several years from backache and the kidney secretions were unnatural. I was annoyed by dizzy spells after standing for a while, and at times my feet became swollen and painful. The doctors I consulted said I was suffering from kidney trouble, but their medicines failed to help me.

Finally I was told about Doan's Kidney Pills and I procured a box from a local drug store. Since using this remedy, I have been troubled but little by pain in my back and my feet have not swelled. If my experience will help other kidney sufferers I give this statement gladly."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doans—and take no other.
